

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

Information of a Plot against the Irish Government.

More of the Assassination—Otto Trevelyan Chief Secretary—L. O. F. Grand Officers—Crash Family.

Associated Press Dispatches.

LONDON, May 8.—Parnell and Davitt have been interviewed on the assassination of Cavendish and Burke. Parnell said: "I am horrified more than I can express. This is one of the most atrocious crimes ever committed."

DAVITT'S STRONG CONDEMNATION.

Davitt said: "No language I can possibly command can express the horror with which I regard the murders or my despair at their consequence. When I heard of them on Saturday night I could not credit the news. I grieve to think that when the Government had just rinned a rivet in introducing a new policy, when everything seemed bright and hopeful, when all expected outrage to cease, this terrible event should dash our hopes, and wish to God I never had left Portland."

BELIEVED AND HORRIFIED.

Dillon, in an interview, said he deeply deplored the sorrowful tidings. He fully concurred in the opinions on the outrage expressed by Parnell and Davitt. Sexton said: "I am bewildered and horrified; I regarded Lord Frederick Cavendish as an amiable and painstaking gentleman."

PARNELL UTTERLY DEPRESSED.

NEW YORK, May 8.—The following cable dispatch from London was received last evening by Patrick Ford, editor of the Irish World, from Henry George: Parnell is utterly depressed and distressed. His manner is entirely changed from his usual one of unruffled calmness. He feels most keenly, and in answer to my query said: "I consider those the most abominable, atrocious, wanton crimes that ever disgraced the annals of Ireland or any other country."

A TALK WITH FORSTER'S SON.

LONDON, May 8.—At the Reform Club, headquarters of the Liberals, a large crowd was present and the whole place seemed in consternation. One seemed to have any plans for the future. Charles, the son of Mr. Forster, said the feeling of weariness in the Liberal party had not yet cleared sufficiently to permit the formation of any definite design or even to attempt to comprehend the extent of the calamity. He thought there was no room for doubt that the attack was made with the intention of killing Cavendish as well as Burke, and thought that the murder was undoubtedly committed by an organized band.

IRISH-AMERICAN Nihilists.

Speculation is rife as to the origin of the conspiracy. It is suggested that Irish-American emissaries were employed to commit the crime. A telegram from Liverpool states that Clifford Lloyd had received information that three men had left America to assassinate him. This, it is thought, gives color to the surmise that the Dublin tragedy may have had its origin in America.

MANIFESTO TO THE IRISH PEOPLE.

LONDON, May 8.—The following manifesto of the Land League was adopted yesterday afternoon at a hurriedly summoned meeting at the Westminster Palace Hotel:

To the People of Ireland: On the eve of what seemed a bright future for our country, that evil destiny which has apparently pursued us for centuries has struck at our hopes another blow which cannot be exaggerated in its disastrous consequences. In this hour of sorrowful gloom we venture to give expression to a profound sympathy with the people of Ireland in the calamity that has befallen our cause through this horrible deed, and with those who determined at the last hour that a policy of conciliation should supplant that of terrorism and national distrust. We earnestly hope that the attitude and acts of the Irish people will show to the world that this assassination, such as has started us almost to the abandonment of our country's future is deeply and religiously abhorrent to their every feeling and instinct. We appeal to you to show by every manner of expression that amidst the universal feeling of horror which this assassination has excited, no people feel so deep sympathy with those whose hearts must be seared by it, as the nation upon whose prosperity and reviving hopes it may entail consequences more ruinous than those that have fallen to the lot of unhappy Ireland during the present generation. We feel that no act that has ever been perpetrated in this country during the exciting struggles of the past fifty years has so stained the name of the hospitable Ireland as this cowardly and unprovoked assassination of a friendly stranger, and that amidst the universal feeling of horror which this assassination has excited, no people feel so deep sympathy with those whose hearts must be seared by it, as the nation upon whose prosperity and reviving hopes it may entail consequences more ruinous than those that have fallen to the lot of unhappy Ireland during the present generation. We feel that no act that has ever been perpetrated in this country during the exciting struggles of the past fifty years has so stained the name of the hospitable Ireland as this cowardly and unprovoked assassination of a friendly stranger, and that amidst the universal feeling of horror which this assassination has excited, no people feel so deep sympathy with those whose hearts must be seared by it, as the nation upon whose prosperity and reviving hopes it may entail consequences more ruinous than those that have fallen to the lot of unhappy Ireland during the present generation.

CHARLES S. PARNELL.

JOHN DILLON.

MICHAEL DAVITT.

LONDON, May 9.—The latest information shows some evidence indicating the existence of a plot aimed at the Irish Government; also, at the head of the Liberal party. The residences of the Ministers are guarded.

Forster has neither accepted nor been offered the office of Chief Secretary of Ireland.

CAVENDISH'S SUCCESSOR.

It is stated that John Holmes, Jr., head of the Treasury, will succeed the late Lord Cavendish as Secretary to the Treasury. Herbert Gladstone is to succeed Holmes.

G. J. HOLLYCOCK received a grant of one hundred pounds to go to America and make a report on co-operation.

It is rumored that the under-Secretary for Ireland has been offered to Blake, one of the special magistrates appointed.

George Otto Trevelyan has been appointed Chief Secretary of Ireland.

The intention of releasing the suspects is now completely abandoned.

DUBLIN, May 9.—The remains of Lord Cavendish were conveyed on a gun-carriage from the Vice-Regal Lodge to North Wall wharf last evening and placed on board an ordinary steamer for England. Along the route the procession was received with evidence of sympathy by an immense crowd. Earl Spencer went out several times to-day, and everywhere he appeared he was received with an enthusiasm which gave evidence of the strength of popular feeling against the assassination.

It is stated that a few days ago Burke received a letter warning him that if he did not at once follow the example of Forster and clear out of the Castle he would have only three days to live.

It is stated that the police are hopeful of capturing the assassins. They received evidence which enables them to identify the murderers. It is also said that the car in which they escaped has been traced to Leixley, ten miles northwest of Dublin, where the riders alighted to procure liquor. A man has just been arrested who is believed to be the carman who drove the assassins. He cannot account for himself, and closely resembles the description given of the man who drove the red car in which the four men rode.

FROM THE BAY.

The San Francisco Land League on the Assassination.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 9.—A large meeting was held here last evening by the Irish National Land League, to take some action in regard to the assassination of Lord Cavendish and Mr. Burke. Resolutions were adopted denouncing in the severest terms the horrible crime. A sum of money was also raised to be added to the reward already offered for the apprehension of the assassins. The meeting was addressed by Judge Toohy, Rev. Father Rooney and others.

I. O. O. F. OFFICERS.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 9.—To-day the thirty-eighth annual session of the Grand Lodge of the I. O. O. F. of California convened. The following officers of the Grand Lodge are in attendance: D. Loderbach, G. M.; L. D. Freer, D. G. M.; D. M. Burns, G. W.; W. B. Lyons, G. W.; H. L. Brooks, G. T.; W. W. Morrow and G. L. Johnson, Representatives to the Supreme Lodge; Rev. A. F. Hitchcock, G. Chaplain; M. E. Clough, G. Marshal; D. M. Burns, G. Con.; J. G. Berson, G. G.; J. W. Guiton, G. H. All the Lodges throughout the jurisdiction will be in session for several days.

A CHOLLAR ASSASSINATION.

Chollar levies an assessment of twenty-five cents.

All Crazy.

NEW YORK, May 9.—A writ of habeas corpus has been served on Jno. W. Guiton by Gen. W. Scoville, commanding him to produce the body of Mrs. Francis M. Scoville at chambers of the county court May 9th. Scoville, the petitioner, sets forth that his wife is illegally detained and distrained of her liberty by her brother, John W. Guiton, and the petitioner further says that since the late trial of her brother, Chas. W. Guiton, in Washington, his wife has shown strong evidence of mental disturbance, which has been increased by persons who have attempted to make use of her for the purpose of gain. The petitioner also claims that J. W. Guiton refuses to reveal the present whereabouts of his wife. J. W. Guiton claims that Scoville himself is crazy on the subject of his wife's insanity. He says his sister's mind is affected and he feels very sorry for it, and desires to look after her.

An Insane Mother Kills Her Children.

BOSTON, May 9.—Marie Kone, a German woman, this morning murdered her boy, August, five years old, cutting his throat with a case-knife. She then cut the throat of her daughter Mary, thirteen years old; would not do anything for her, and cut in a fatal place, not fatal. Emil, a boy of seven, was also wounded. The woman attempted to kill herself. She is doubtless insane.

The New Canaan.

WICHITA, Kan., May 8.—Capt. Payne left this evening for Hunkerville. About thirty teams are reported by Payne as collected at that point, loaded with supplies for the settlement, and ready to start for Oklahoma. Payne received a letter a few days ago from Parson, Kansas, which says that a train of fifty wagons, loaded with lumber, provisions and a printing office had left that place on Wednesday for the promised land.

The Christianity Business.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Examiner Lovejoy took the deposition of witness Stephen Chester this afternoon in behalf of Ex-Senator Christianity in the divorce suit. The witness said he met Geo. E. Haight at Iquitos, Peru, in the latter part of July, 1879, and Haight told him he was introduced to Mrs. Christianity on the steamer from New York to Aspinwall and had intimate relations with her while on board, at Lima, and that while in Peru, he was kept up between them there, at times narrowly escaping discovery by Mr. Christianity; also that she openly visited Mr. Haight's room at the hotel and created scandal among the call officers.

Destructive Storm in Texas.

GALVESTON, May 9.—A special report has been received of the destruction of the East Bernard railroad depot, besides other damages in the town and neighborhood by a hurricane. Two houses on the Wharton place were leveled and one man killed. The Democratic State Convention is called for July 16th.

They talk about appointing colored policemen on the New York police force. Don't do it. It's hard enough to see a white one after dark.

The MINISTER'S RESOLVE.

They Endorse and Advocate the Sunday Law.

The following resolutions were unanimously passed by the Los Angeles District Ministerial Association, held at Santa Ana, May 4, 1892.

Resolved, That our present Sabbath law is a very just, wise and necessary law for securing to the people of this State the blessings of the Sabbath.

Resolved, That the present powerful, organized opposition on the part of the liquor interest of the State, is a wicked rebellion against law and order, and subversive of all good government.

Resolved, It is the duty of all officers in their respective capacities, to enforce the law against individual or organized opposition.

Resolved, We will use all honorable means in the interests of humanity, morality, religion, for the maintenance of this law, and we will support only such men for office as are in favor of it.

A Sanctioned Joke.

A few weeks since the Times published the account of a one-armed colored person named Sampson catching a Jewish rat at Santa Monica, which had been stranded there by the receding tide. Now comes the National Police Gazette, of May 4, which tells of a New York City, with an illustration of the affair, which is inaccurate in at least two points.

Its picture represents a white man, and he has two arms. In the exception of these two important items the engraving is a worthy reflection upon our one-armed colored "lone fisherman by the sea."

Passengers Leaving.

The following passengers left this city yesterday for San Francisco and way ports per the Acacia: Mrs. Annie McElvay, Miss Mary Dutch, Miss C. W. Burns, Mrs. M. A. de la Roche, E. C. Morrison, F. Hind, E. Ohlsson, James Kalahash, J. Zimmerman and wife, F. Cohen, and twenty-two in steerage.

Sunday Law.

The case of the People against Gauthier, wherein the defendant is charged with violating the Sunday law comes up to-day at Wilmington. J. H. Blanchard will appear for the prosecution, and Colonel Gregory for the defense. This is for one of the first offenses committed immediately after the recent decision by the Supreme Court. There are sixty cases yet on the dockets to be tried as soon as the question of the writs of prohibition can be settled.

Edwanda Water Company.

The Edwanda Water Company was incorporated yesterday to supply water to the new settlement of that name, six miles east of Cucamonga, with the following Board of Directors: J. C. Dunlap, Thomas Hendry, C. N. Ross, Charles Chaffey and R. A. Cunningham. The capital stock is placed at $500,000, divided into 5,000 shares of $100 each. Principal place of business, Edwanda, San Bernardino county.

U. S. White Man's Laundry.

Another white labor laundry has been started by Mr. M. Cullen on Turner street, between Wilmington and Alameda streets, opposite Vine street. He will do washing at reasonable rates, within reach of everybody, and is now arranging for branch offices in different parts of the city. See advertisement in this issue.

The Beecher Scandal Revived.

A gentleman living near Beaudry Park owns two roosters which he has named Henry Ward Beecher and Theodore Tilton. When asked his reason for giving the strange appellations, he replied: "Theodore Tilton is always charging Henry Ward, and hence the names."

Shooting Match.

There will be a hotly-contested shooting match at Pasadena to-day between the Los Angeles Sporting Club and the Pasadena Rifle Club. The latter is not for the medal of the "Bos of the Ten."

SAMPTON'S SHEEP CASH STORE, Mai the 4 day, 1892.

If you please, I wish to speak some things mit dot editor of dose DIMES nose-baggy for Los Angeles.

I haf been reading mit dot Tully Herald nose-baggy what comes by my shorah pooty soon a while ago, outside around one package of second-hand clodings. I haf been reading in dot nose-baggy somedings vot I don't can't oaksly understand, you know. Dot editor, Cholechek, he haf been spikken how he makes some new dypes by dose nose-baggy. Vel, I understand pretty good dot. But ven' he says dot weakly Herald beas one "hebdomadal," I don't know! I don't can't tell vot he means! Cho arches dose beepsles to support hees "Democratic hebdomadal." Now, if you please, vot in dundar I shoud like to see dot hebdomadal! Vot kind of agraft is it, anyhow? Is it something like a hermaphrodite brig, for instance? Or is it one of dose affairs vot dot drug store mass sells—vot you call den?—abdominal supporters or something of the kind? Some sick fellers employs dem, you know, for the purpose of holding up their inwardly—or maybe you call it the stomach.

Now I have been subscribing for dot weakly Herald many years for the express purpose because I vot I got a hebdomadal nose-baggy—and here dot editor he says it was a hebdomadal! Tussener! he haf been of me making a pig foot allowance. I dot know no hebdomadal support, if I know mysse! By Shorge! I guess I guess pooty soon in dot DIMES office, when I comes somedimes by her staff, mit I subscribe by dot Republican paper. I must haf a nose-baggy what is printed in der United States lankwich.

PARTED FOREVER.

A Downey Wife Leaves her Husband, and Lives with Another.

Some strange things happen in this life. All the wild extravagant plots of novels from the coarse tales of Man-chausen to the delicate love stories in Arthur's are not to be compared to the actual of the oft-repeated histories of every-day life.

The scene this time is laid in Downey City. There lived a man in this quiet little country village named Robert J. Bell, who has lived fourteen years with his wife Catherine, a pretty little woman, and by whom he has had five children. Yet after all this time Catherine leaves her husband, and takes her little girl and goes to live with a bigger, if not a "handsomer man." The husband No. 2 is Mr. Seth Dailey, of San Diego. Mr. Dailey owned a little fourteen-acre orchard in Cholla valley, between San Diego and National City, which place he sold last February. Since that time his visits to Los Angeles have been frequent, as the steamer passenger lists and hotel registers will bear witness. Those visits were presumably to entice the tender cords of affection of Mrs. Bell from her husband and twine the afore-said cords around his own heart.

On the 29th inst. Mrs. Bell, with her little girl, registered at the United States hotel under the assumed name of W. H. Parker, wife and child of Iowa. The same day Bell filed a complaint with the District Attorney, charging Dailey with adultery. Dailey was arrested and gave bonds to appear on his crime before the Superior Court. Yesterday the tactics were changed. Bell applied for and obtained a divorce from his faithless spouse on the ground of adultery, and she continues with her partner No. two.

ANALHEIM.

A Retrospective view by our Regular Correspondent.

Present and Past—A Felling Off—The Scale turning Favorably Again—What they are doing.

EDITOR TIMES: Anaheim is a place of sufficient importance to be represented in the press of the county seat. For a long time you have had no correspondent from this part of the county, and the outside world has known little of our condition and of our daily doings, save that portion which subscribe to our excellent home paper. We believe events are constantly transpiring here that would be of interest to not only the other residents of our county but to the great mass of immigrants now pouring, and who will continue to pour, into the fairest section of our fair State. We have been requested, and we propose to send you a semi-weekly or weekly letter giving all the items of interest and importance which shall transpire in Anaheim and vicinity, and in so doing we shall be careful to note nothing but hard facts, believing that they will speak strongly for themselves. Misrepresentation and exaggeration may triumph and flourish for a time, but, sooner or later, the relapse will come, and the condition of things will be worse than before. In this, our first letter, allow us the space to review briefly our PRESENT AND PAST.

Condition. For the past three years this community has not only remained in that sad state as regards industry and enterprise, but has fallen in a mannerably in population. The Arizona excitement three years ago attracted many of our best citizens from our midst, and later Mexico and Texas further drained our population; many left to work in various capacities on the new Southern railroad; two hundred, if not five hundred, have fallen in irrigating water, drove many more desirable families to other parts. During all this time immigration from the East and West has been small, and little or no come was attracted to other sections. Our condition during that time was indeed not to be envied, and the wonder is that as soon and with so little effort is the old-time energy and activity beginning to smile upon us. It is said that "truth and work will assert itself," here we must look for the new interest and attention being directed to this locality. Our population has comprised chiefly a class who, while industrious and hospitable, have been content to live in peace and comfort in a manner retired from the rest of the world, not caring to invite the establishment of enterprises and industries other than those inseparably connected with wine-making. Within the last few months our population has received the addition of several citizens of public-spirited and enterprising character, who have in mind that this is an age of progress; that if we stand idly and indifferently by while our neighbors are up and doing, we must expect but to be left behind in the race.

FOUR YEARS AGO.

Anaheim was the second place in the county in population and importance, and second in Southern California in the number of vineyards. It has been obliged to take a third place in our own county. All this is again changing. During the past four months many strangers have settled on land and used the new vineyards erected; our largest hotel has been thoroughly overhauled and repaired and a cement walk put down in front; a capacious brick block is under course of construction, and several business places have been altered and refitted. These, in an older community, would be reckoned as small things; with us, it means the beginning of a new era, which will at no distant day develop into an old-time activity and place us as of yore as second in importance in the county.

WHAT WE ARE DOING.

Mr. Schindler last week commenced preparations to burn a kiln of two hundred thousand bricks near the old lumber yard, all the space brick in town having been taken up for use on the new block. Mr. A. Langenberg has just completed a private dwelling in the county, and the grounds are being laid out in a very tasteful manner.

All our desirable homes have been rented to newcomers and several times families have been unable to find places to stop other than the hotels.

Our fellow-townsman, F. S. Gardemeyer, has leased the Santiago oak grove for the season, and on May Day gave the first of a series of picnic convalescences for the summer. The attendance was the largest ever assembled there, although the day was foggy or cloudy throughout. Anaheim Brass Band furnished good music for the occasion, and besides the usual games and amusements a floor had been erected for the use of dancers. In the afternoon a match game of base ball was played between the Orange and Los Angeles clubs, which resulted in a victory for the inevitable Orange boys by a score of 15 to 10. We have understood Mr. S. Gardemeyer is well pleased with the result of his venture.

The crops in this section will be light in season, smaller than usual, but it was hoped after the late rains, still much larger than was expected at the beginning of the season. Prices will be up in proportion.

Last evening Prof. Redway delivered a free lecture at Kroeger's hall, his subject being "The End of the World." His remarks were illustrated with photographic views of the sun, moon, planets of Egypt, etc., exhibited by means of a magic lantern, which added greatly to the interest in the discourse. The lecturer charged Prof. Smythe of Scotland with the responsibility of the prediction that the world would come to an end in 1881, and he assured us that that prediction had not been fulfilled, and that the Professor had since discovered some slight errors in his calculations which postponed that interesting event until the year 1884.

The most dangerous period of conjunction of the planets which would occur for hundreds of years had been passed without serious calamity. On the whole the Professor's assurance that the world would not be destroyed, and that the relief was—as to the immediate future—at least.

The new Board of Town Trustees met on Monday, the purpose of the meeting. B. Dreyfus was re-elected President, and the following standing committees were appointed. Public Improvements—Messrs. Northman, Boege and Dreyfus. Finance—Messrs. Easton, Boege and Zern. Ordinance—Messrs. Zern, Saxton and Northman. Code. Lynn, Esq., was reappointed Town Attorney, and the following meeting was changed to the Odd Fellows' hall building. The committee on public improvements was instructed to ascertain the cost of a 50,000 gallon tank and tower; and the cost of different sizes of water pipe, with a view to improving the water system.

The freight movement over the S. P. R. at the Anaheim depot has been very lively for some time past, and indicates more than anything else the improvement in our business interests. The exports and imports for the month of

The freight movement over the S. P. R. at the Anaheim depot has been very lively for some time past, and indicates more than anything else the improvement in our business interests. The exports and imports for the month of April were unusually heavy, and our agent has been kept so busy from morning till night that he has been unable to make a statement. We here give the amount of freight sent and received from May 1st to 5th, inclusive: Exports—Eggs, 36 cases, 2,160 lbs; oranges, lemons and limes, 6,105 lbs; walnuts, 240 lbs; honey, 120 lbs; poultry, 340 lbs; butter, 216 lbs; bacon, 7,350 lbs; wine and brandy, 52,290 lbs; wool, 60, 382 lbs; corn, 47,900 lbs; total, 181,143 lbs, or over 90 tons. The imports during the same period amounted to 96,035 lbs, or 48 tons. The one item of flour comprised over 13 tons of this amount. We could support a flouring mill in a flourishing condition.

Mr. G. R. Hinde yesterday showed us a box of fine strawberries grown by him from plants of the sharpless variety, a new variety just introduced in the East. The largest measured eleven and three-eighths inches in circumference, and was of beautiful color and delicious flavor; several others were but little behind in size and quality. He finds a ready market at home for all he can raise.

Several new enterprises are being talked of at the present time which may become leading features among Anaheim's attractions. We defer mentioning them until they are fairly well organized.
